Family company history

Igor Surkov –MOROZOVSKIE TRADITCII LLC knitted goods factory and a MARHATTER brand founder Surkovs family business starts in the early seventies as needlework and knitting were their grandmother`s hobby.

That time it was a quite popular way of time spending as well as a compulsory sometimes. Almost everyone knitted. When all family members and relatives were provided with knit headwear and scarfs, while a hobby seemed to be serious day by day, first sales at weekend trade fairs began.

Since 1987 Igor takes an active part in family business development. Soon it was clear that demand exceeds a supply.

Company received plenty of large orders in a short time. Business grew and required more quality control.

It was a reason of an own factory with a high quality standards foundation.

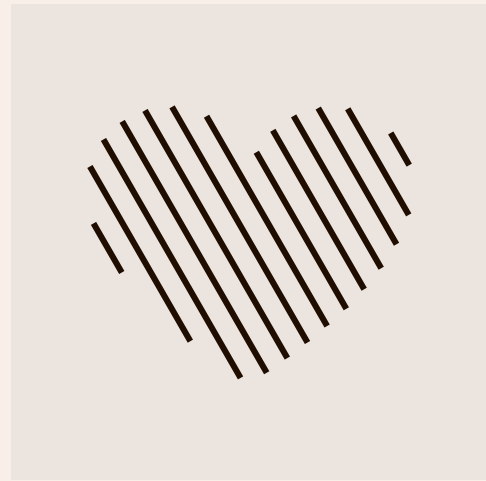

«MOROZOVSKIE TRADITCII» LLC knitted goods factory started its work in 2000 in Tver in a restored building of 19th century built by a famous Russian merchant Morozov.

The same year MARHATTER brand was founded. Brand name is based on 2 words: Marmot (in honor of owner's family name) and Hat.

Nowadays our company employs over 300 people and produces over 2 million headwear and accessories.
